DESCRIPTION

This Property is situated at the end of a cul-de-sac in a very secluded location, you enter the property from a large sweeping driveway that takes you down to the ample parking area with garage. The gardens are a delight with many terraces and seating areas where you can enjoy the shade and the open views across the valley, There is also a tennis court and a private 8x4 meter swimming pool which is adjacent to the very large covered summer kitchen with its own bar. The property is divided into three levels with the guest apartment and garage with lots of storage space. on the middle level you have bedrooms and a study, and on the upper level the main living area with superb views across the valley to the Sierra Bernia and views to the sea, with an enormous lounge area. In total there are 5 bedrooms and 4 bathrooms and the general distribution of the villa is very good.
